TWENTY THOUSAND REPORTED KILLED IN BULGARIAN FIGHTING

All Day Battle Said to Have Taken Place Between
Revolutionary Forces and Regular Troops—
Location Near Sofia.

London, Sept. 25.—Twenty thousand men were killed on both sides during an all day battle between Bulgarian revolutionaries and regular troops on Sunday, said a Belgrade dispatch to the Daily News today quoting the newspaper Politika.

The dispatch did not give the location of the fight, but early dispatches indicated that it was near Sofia.

It is believed that the Belgrade report of 20,000 killed in battle is either an exaggeration or else an error in telegraphic transmission.

The highest estimate of casualties up to today was 700 killed and 2,000 wounded. These figures covered all the fighting, not a single engagement.

Censorship in Bulgaria is obscuring the situation and it would obviously be impossible for a correspondent in Sofia to send a dispatch containing such a casualty list.

Paris, Sept. 25.—The Bulgarian cabinet has resigned as a result of the Agrarian revolution, said a Sofia dispatch to the foreign office today.

The ministry was immediately reorganized, omitting the old minister of justice, A. national-liberal.

WHEELER WOULD FIX THE PRICE OF U. S. WHEAT

Program of "Liberal"
Group Placed Before
Coolidge

Washington, Sept. 25.—The "liberal" group, which will hold the balance of power in the next congress, took the initiative in the movement to force the administration into taking some action to relieve the distressful burdens of the American farmers.

The first step was the presentation of a formal demand to President Coolidge for the immediate summoning of congress in extra session to enact legislation for agricultural relief.

This demand was laid before the president by Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, who advised the president that congress should at once pass a measure fixing the price of wheat, and that immediate recognition should be extended to the existing government of Russia, thereby creating new markets for the farmers' products.

The second step taken by the group to bring about governmental intervention in the agricultural industry was the announcement by Senator Wheeler that a conference of all members of the group in both senate and house will be held here early in November to adopt a program for legislative action in the next congress. The call for the conference is being prepared. Of course, if an extra session of the congress is called the conference of the "liberals" will be called to meet at an earlier date.

Already three "planks" in the liberal program for legislation by congress have been agreed upon, Senator Wheeler said. They are: First, fixing the selling price of wheat; second, repeal of the Esch-Cummins transportation act; third, recognition of Russia.

Explaining these in order, Senator Wheeler pointed out that the government already has established precedents for the wheat price-fixing measure by the enactment of the Esch-Cummins law, which guaranteed a fixed return to the railroad companies upon their investments; also in the post-war adjustments with contractors, who were reimbursed for their outlay upon uncompleted projects.

"The government urged the farmers to plant all their acreage to wheat, just as it encouraged builders to devote their energies to putting up structures for housing various war activities," Senator Wheeler said. "The farmers never got anything for their trouble, but all the others did. Settlements were made by the government with contractors who found themselves with uncompleted jobs on their hands, while the farmers who had responded to the call for the planting of more wheat got nothing. All the government needs to do is to go out and buy one bushel of wheat. This will fix the price and the jobbers and middlemen will have to pay the same price for the wheat they get."

AWARDED FOURTH PLACE.

Columbus, Sept. 25.—Ohio's state champion live stock team, which won the title at the Ohio state fair, was awarded fourth place in national competition at the Sioux City food and clothing exposition, according to a report received by the Ohio Bankers' association. The state of Minnesota was granted the national championship title, winning over North Dakota, Nebraska, Ohio and seven other states, the report stated.

REUNION OPENS

Cincinnati, Sept. 25.—The Ohio legislative reunion was formally opened here last night when approximately 170 members of the Ohio general assembly and other state officials were the guests of the city. An official welcome was extended to the visitors by Mayor George Carrel, in behalf of a committee appointed to supervise the entertainment of the legislators. Governor Donahey and Lieut. Governor Bloom were unable to be present at the opening.

Harold Loomis

The Loomis family, of Chicago, considered that it was necessary to chain up little Harold, 13, to make him "be good." They shackled him, as shown, in a cellar coal pile, "Sometimes papa beat me with a strap," said Harold. Unrepentant, penitent, his spirit broken, he was rescued by the police. According to the juvenile court officials, Harold is not a bad boy.

TEACHER RECEIVES THREATENING NOTE

Covington, Ky., Sept. 25.—A letter signed "K. K. K." and carrying the warning "you refuse to talk; beware," was received yesterday by Miss Rose Dobrowsky of Cincinnati, a teacher in the Covington public schools. The letter came as the aftermath of a mysterious telephone message last Saturday concerning the whipping of a girl pupil. The letter, which is in the hands of post office inspectors in Cincinnati, is printed on stationery that bears the words "Ku Klux Klan, Inc. The strongest organization on earth. We fear no man." This, according to Covington Klan officials, is not the official stationery of the organization.

Investigation of the use of rubber hose to punish Covington school children is expected to result from the supposed Klan letter.

Miss Dobrowsky is alleged in the Klan letter to have used a rubber hose in inflicting punishment upon the girl pupil.

Covington school officials were indignant over the phone call and letter to Miss Dobrowsky. They paid high tribute to her ability and character.

"SHOOT TO KILL"

Executive Remains Firm—
Jewett to Bring Suit for Alleged Attack

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 25.—True to his promise, Governor J. C. (Iron Jack) Walton put his own newspaper on the streets of Oklahoma City today.

It was called "The Record" and made its appearance at a time when excitement was high and military officials were in conference with the governor, making plans to prevent "by use of arms if necessary," the assemblage tomorrow which Gov. Walton terms the "Ku Klux Klan legislature."

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 25.—Governor Walton, facing the crisis of his career tomorrow, has ordered Adjutant General Baird H. Markham, commander of the Oklahoma national guard, to "use all the military forces of the state—all force of arms necessary"—to prevent the legislative quorum of the house of representatives meeting, in accordance with its avowed plan.

The governor commanded all citizens between the ages of 21 and 45 to hold themselves in readiness for service. His official order to the military left no further chance to doubt that he means to stop the "rebel legislators" at all costs, even that of statewide violence and bloodshed, if it should come to that extreme.

The governor reiterates that the Ku Klux Klan "was declared to be an enemy of the sovereign state of Oklahoma," and refers to evidence of his military court of inquiry as purporting to show that "it has taken over the political government in many cities and counties." Murders, floggings and other outrages are again charged to the Klan as an organization.

In a supplemental statement to newspaper correspondents, the governor added that the troops would be ordered to shoot to kill, if necessary, to halt the legislators in their determination to assemble against his edict.

The grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan N. C. Jewett, struck back and announced plans for a counter attack on the governor and his court of military inquiry.

Aroused by his arrest on a charge of rioting and flogging, Jewett, supreme klansman of the realm of Oklahoma, declared that he would use the same guns against his enemies as they have trained on him.

That he contemplates bringing both criminal and civil libel proceedings against the governor, Dr. A. A. Maupin, who testified against him at the court of military inquiry, "and others who have defamed my character," was his direct intimation. "I shall insist upon full vindication of my character," Jewett asserted.

There was some doubt in the minds of a number today as to whether the "lawless legislators"—as Walton calls them—will be able to muster a quorum in the capitol tomorrow. W. D. McBee, acknowledged leader of the impeachment movement, would not claim more than fifty members of the house were in the city. Fifty-four members are required for a majority, McBee did claim, however, that there would be eighty here when the time arrives for them to go over the hill to the capitol.

Military occupation of the city is to be increased and extended, Governor Walton announced. Mobilization of a considerable number of additional troops has already been ordered in the armories of other cities and the troops will entrain for the capital.

Republican members of the Oklahoma senate agreed that they "would keep hands off" the gubernatorial-legislative war here until assured of the legality of the called meeting of the house of representatives. The senate is composed of 12 Republicans and 33 Democrats.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS MEET.

Toledo, Sept. 25.—Delegates to the state convention of Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters have arrived in the city. All lodges of the state are represented, it being estimated that more than 1,000 delegates are in attendance. The grand lodge is in session today.

MRS. W. E. D. STOKES ACCUSES TWENTY

W. E. D. Stokes and Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes

The prolonged and bitter divorce litigation between W. E. D. Stokes, New York multi-millionaire hotel owner and sportsman, who a few years ago was the victim of the "shooting show girls," and his wife, a former Denver (Colo.) belle, reached a climax when Mrs. Stokes asked State's Attorney Crowe, of Chicago, for the indictment of a score of persons. She charges they have furnished her husband with false affidavits that she was the "Helen Norcross" who, twelve years ago, was an inmate of the notorious Everleigh Club, of Chicago. She asks prosecution for perjury and conspiracy. Minnie Everleigh, in Paris, has sworn that Mrs. Stokes was not "Helen Norcross." In his original divorce suit, Stokes named his own son as a co-respondent, but later withdrew the allegation. Mrs. Stokes is his second wife. She was completely exonerated in the original suit, but the trial judge died before the papers were signed, and the case must be tried again.

PENDING LIQUOR INDICTMENTS ARE HELD VALID BY U. S. COURT IN WEST VIRGINIA

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 25.—In an opinion rendered in federal court this morning, Judge W. E. Baker over ruled demurrers, interposed in behalf of the 87 individuals indicted here for conspiracy to violate the Volstead law.

The ruling holds as valid all pending indictments and rules out contention of defense counsel that the government had gone outside the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act to find the indictments that involve Sheriff Harry T. Clouse and his jailer, Joseph Bennett, and 84 individuals, who include not only prominent local business men and former officials, but persons in several counties of Ohio, in Pennsylvania and Tennessee.

MODERNISM CAUSES M. E. DISCUSSION

Columbus, Sept. 25.—The refusal of the annual Ohio M. E. Conference to take a definite stand on the issues between modernism and fundamentalism was the cause of considerable discussion in Methodist circles today following the closing session of the conference late Monday.

The conference rejected a memorial to expurge certain books in the conference course of study which were said to be "not in accord with the constitutional standards of the church." A proposed revision of the church hymnal was also rejected.

Memorials adopted provide that church officials absent from official meetings for six months lose their positions; the title "local preacher" be changed to "lay preacher;" that the words "general superintendent" be substituted for "bishops" in the ritual and that annuities and other regulations concerning supply preachers be changed.

VERDICT MAY BE READY IN A DAY

Cleveland, Sept. 25.—With only the closing arguments for government and defense and the charge of Judge D. C. Westenhaver still to be made, it was predicted today that the jury trying the conspiracy charges against Joseph Shearer, former federal prohibition director of Ohio; Fred Counts, former federal prohibition agent, and Samuel A. Hoskins and A. Frank Counts, lawyers, would have begun deliberations late today and might return their verdict before midnight.

PERSONNEL OF CENTRAL HIGH ELEVEN IS STILL CASTING DEEP SHADOW OF MYSTERY

A worried bunch of youngsters, wearing the conventional blue and white of Central High School athletic teams, will march on Cox Memorial Athletic Field Friday afternoon for the first game of the 1923 gridiron campaign with Wilmington High School. Forty or more pastimers who have been roll-blocking, tackling and passing their way to a position on the squad, will wear these treful expressions when they take the oblong in the curtain raiser. The trefulness will arise from the fact that there isn't a player on the huge squad that can lay claim to the belief that he has earned himself a berth in the eleven.

Coach "Puss" Burgner is talking about as much as the Sphinx regarding who will face Coach Black's pastimers in the Friday afternoon embroglio. Candidates have absorbed the hint tht on their showing in this final week of practice will depend whether they start against the Quakers or not. The fact that three or more recruits will be available for every position on the team is strengthening Coach Burgner's system of keeping the bad news to himself.

With no player considering his position cinched all are working up a temperature trying to further their qualities in the eyes of the mentor. The result is that all of the pastimers are striving equally and the opening game will probably see all of these lads getting a crack at the opening day hon-ors.

Art Currie three year quarterback, reported to the squad Monday night.

Styles BY LENORE

For the season's most recent originalities, Dame Fashion has robbed the poor ostrich. We have in the sketch a charming fan decorated with an ostrich rose and curled "drips" — a distinctive vocarde and newest conceit of all, an ostrich trimmed bag.

PARIS NOTES

One of the notable silhouettes has the skirt crushed about the hips and completed with gathered fullness or circular effect.

The low waistline is retained in many models, frequently emphasized with embroidered bands or metal galon.

In three-piece costumes coats of three-quarter length are being introduced.

Velvet is prominent in fall fashions, especially in black, relieved by white fur.

Fur is given a great deal of importance as a trimming, for cloth dresses as well as suits. Here, astrakham and Hudson seal are prominent. Moleskin is made into a three-piece suit by Barnard.

There will be no ceremonies connected with the opening of Cox field Friday. The new gridiron was made possible by a gift of the six acre tract by F. W. Dodds and it was drained, graded and fenced in with money subscribed to that fund by high school graduating classes for more than ten years. A new entrance is yet to be built and bleachers will later be installed. One of the important games of mid-season will probably be selected as dedication day when special ceremonies will mark this new era in gridiron history at Central.

The game Friday will start at three o'clock in the afternoon. Fans are pleased to know that Dr. Dave Rees, of Dayton, will again officiate at all local games. Reese, a former Denison star center and more recently a crack end on the Dayton Triangle eleven is the most popular official who ever worked here. Fans greatly admire the Dayton ref and will be glad to see him again handling the whistle.

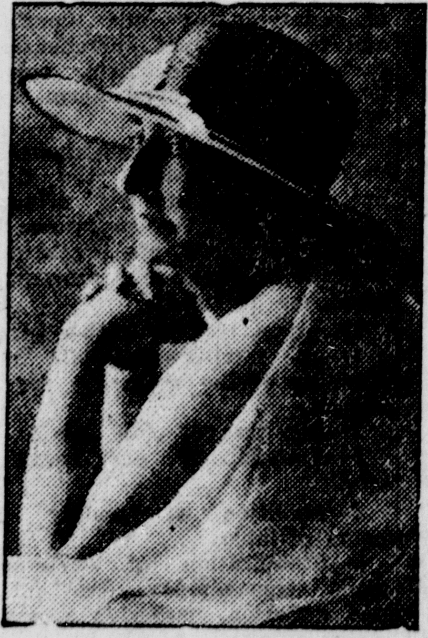

By Those Who Know

"Is this the time to build?"
It's one of the most frequently asked questions. And in all sincerity can we now answer—
"Yes—it is."
The present offers no indication of reduction in prices. The demand for building materials is general. Added to this is the recent increase in freight rates. All tending to increase, rather than decrease the cost of materials.
One condition we must never lose sight of. While there may still be years of cutting in some of our timbered sections, that same timber is becoming more difficult to reach each year, and is being brought into the markets at an ever increasing cost.
These sections are, in most cases, remote from the better transportation facilities, which again tends to increase the cost. Labor, generally, has not reverted to the prices of pre-war days—nor can we expect it to.
The present offers the greatest opportunity for economical building. If you're planning to build or repair—do it

MARRIAGE IN COLUMBUS OF INTEREST IN THIS CITY.

Of interest in this city, is the marriage of Miss Fauntibelle Lattimer, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Lattimer, 1512 North High Street, Columbus, and niece of Dr. Hewitt of the O. S. and S. O. Home, this city, to Mr. Louis Dutton Creighton, Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, in the presence of 40 guests.

The Rev. W. M. Hindman, pastor of Northminster Presbyterian Church was the officiating minister. Miss Kathryn Mansell was maid of honor, and Mr. Muri Creighton, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Masters Robert Lattimer, and Scott Creighton, cousin of the bride, and nephew of the bridegroom, held chains of roses and blue asters for the bridal party to pass through. Martha Jane Lattimer, was flower girl. Mrs. Paris Outland, of Ridgeway, played the wedding march and accompaniment for Miss Helen Whittington, of this city, who sang "O Promise Me," and "At Dawning." The ceremony took place in a bower of roses and delphinium.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe satin, trimmed with duchess lace, and pearls. She carried Ophelia roses and lilies, showered with swan-sonia and ribbons.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Creighton left for a two weeks' honeymoon in Michigan.

CONFISCATE TRUNK CONTAINING LIQUOR IN LOCAL HOTEL

While T. E. Saunders, Columbus, alias Frank Leonard, of Austin, Texas, languished in the County Jail serving out a fine of $500 and costs for possessing liquor, a trunk, said to be his and containing a quantity of Gordon dry gin, lay in the trunk room of the Regil Hotel.

On a tip that the man's trunk was at the hotel filled with liquor, Sheriff Morris Sharp investigated Monday and found the receptacle, containing 20 quarts of liquor and eight others that had been broken or their stoppers had worked loose, and the contents had been spilled. Hotel officials were unaware of the presence of the liquor.

Saunders or Leonard, was arrested here a month ago and a quart and one-half of Gordon dry gin confiscated in his traveling case. Authorities allege he is a high-grade liquor salesman. His card bore the name of Saunders, and the Columbus address, and gave his profession as "imported goods." Later the man said his name was Leonard and his home Austin, Texas. Authorities do not believe either is his correct name.

The man has not had correspondence with anyone since being locked up in the County Jail. He declared the small amount of liquor confiscated originally was all he had. The trunk full of gin confiscated Monday will be made the basis of a second charge of possession that will be filed against him at once, authorities say.

ONE PAPER SERVES SEVERAL MILLION READERS IN N. Y.

A total of nearly three and one half million readers in New York have seen without their daily newspapers during the last week when an outlaw strike of pressmen in that city forced publishers to issue a combined eight page paper representing ten morning newspapers and a similar edition representing five afternoon journals.

The combined circulation of the morning newspapers is 2,073,392 while that of the evening papers is 1,401,312 these readers being served with only two editions daily in place of the many editions normally published by each paper.

The combined morning newspaper a copy of which has been received at the offices of The Gazette and The Republican, contains but eight pages with less than a page of advertising. The only advertisements appearing in the paper are theatrical and steamship and a few lost and found ads. There are sixty-eight small theater advertisements and announcements of forty one steamship companies.

According to word from New York Publishers' Association officials Tuesday increased the size of the morning edition to sixteen pages. Although striking pressmen are reported as remaining adamant union pressmen from other cities are arriving in the metropolis in response to an appeal of George L. Berry, president of the International Union, to fill vacancies.

It was expected that Tuesday night's combined edition would be the largest since the strike was begun a week ago. The appearance of editorials and department store advertising was looked for.

POLICE COURT

MAN RE-ARRESTED

Fred Porter, colored, released from the County Jail some time ago on promise to pay his fine and costs on a liquor charge, was re-arrested by Patrolmen Simms and Thompson Monday night for failure to meet his fine.

Porter was fined $500 and costs by Police Judge E. D. Smith and the fine was later commuted to $100 and costs on his agreement to pay. He will probably be remanded to the County Jail.

FINED ON TUESDAY

Walter Scott, colored, was fined $25 and costs by Judge E. D. Smith in Police Court Tuesday morning on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was arrested by Patrolman Simms on an affidavit filed by his wife, who alleged the offense. The fine was dismissed on agreement of Scott to leave his wife alone.

SCHOOL BOYS MAY GET TIME TO WORK

Because of the great difficulty that Greene County farmers are experiencing in securing help to take care of corn and other crops at this busy season, and also because of the exceedingly high cost of labor with which they must compete, the Greene County Board of Education is arranging with as many high schools as possible to have the boys excused from school for a short period, according to County Superintendent of School H. C. Aultman. The work which the pupils miss will be made up upon their return to school.

"This is done only in justice to the farmer," said County Superintendent Aultman, Tuesday, "and his present economic condition and if the opportunity is conscientiously used by both the parents and the teachers it seems that little or no harm will come to the schools by doing so."

WORKING HOURS SEEM SHORTER WHEN YOU FEEL FULL OF 'S'

In the middle of the afternoon lots of people feel tired, "headachy" and can't work. Yet, it isn't the work they do so much as the run-down condition of their nerves, stomach and blood.

Build yourself up, and you'll do twice the work in half the time. Win back your strength, energy and "pep." Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup has proved to countless numbers of people in this state that it increases the stimulates digestion, blood pumping through the body. Take a delicious after meals and see what a difference it makes in the way you sleep and work. It is so understanding that you're returned if for any reason not completely satisfied. Xenia at Sayre & Her- Sohn's Drug Store and at G. O. Carpenter's.

RETURNING AGAIN TO THE CONSTITUTION.

For 135 years we Americans have been living under the Constitution of the United States as adopted July 26, 1788, and modified from time to time by the will of "We, the People of the United States." It has been woven into the very fabric of our life. There have been long years when we have taken it for granted, and as we have taken the tides and the stars as a part of the world, but it has existed as a very foundation and a part of our life.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT STAND

Says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

Glens Falls, N. Y.—"For over two months I was so sick I was not able to stand on my feet, and my husband did my housework. The doctor said an operation might be necessary. I read testimonials about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to take it. Before I had finished taking the first bottle I saw what good it was doing me. I am now well and strong, doing all my work for a family of four, all my washing and my sewing, which I think is remarkable, as I had not dared to run my sewing machine, but had done all my sewing by hand. I truly feel that were it not for your medicine I would not be here today as my case seemed very serious."—Mrs. GEORGE W. BURCHELL, Glens Falls, N. Y.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE
Calvin Coolidge, President:
Was it written in the stars?
Did God whisper His intent
To the dreamy lad who leant
On the weathered pasture bars?
Did the little boy in school
Know that some day he should rule?

Did God whisper: "Train him well.
Teach him to be strong and true.
For some day a tolling bell
To a sorrowing land shall tell
Why this son was sent to you?"
Did God tell her ere she went
She had borne a President?

Calvin Coolidge, President!
Once a lad behind a plough.
Whistling gayly as he went,
With his humble place content,
And a mighty ruler now.
Surely 'tis God's hand we see
In a great man's destiny.

Today's Talk

SUPPORT LIFE.
No two people have exactly the same idea as to the kind of a world this should be.

Chesterton says that this world is "the best of all impossible worlds."

And I think he is right.

I do not like the word "duty." I like the word "privilege" so much better. If responsibility rests upon me I like to think it is a privilege to accept it rather than a duty to carry it. And it is this privilege of accepting responsibility and getting happiness out of it that I call supporting life.

Every day I am surprised at the things I find in this world. And every time I learn something new it inspires me anew to want to know more.

And so I shall support life till the end of my days. I shall support it because of its compensations and opportunities for service, for its revelations in beauty and its wonders, and its mysteries which stimulate my mind to research.

I shall support life for it has always given me much more than I have even given to it, or ever can.

I am not strong for worries. I know a great deal about them and they have nothing to recommend them. But in its problems to solve its difficult tasks and hidden opportunities, life holds a fascinating appeal to me. And so I shall support it with greater zest every minute of my life.

Often we grope. Much of our effort is shrouded in darkness and we are blinded to much of what later is to be revealed to the world as something worthy and well done.

I recall a phrase from Kipling: "Men often do their best work blind, for some one else's sake."

Support life and life will support you.

WANTS NAMES OF BIG POLITICIANS

New York, Sept. 25.—District Attorney Banton issued a subpoena calling upon Seymour L. Crowell, president of the New York stock exchange, to go before the grand jury to name the big politicians and public officers who, he says, tried to influence the exchange in favor of bucketshop operators. Mr. Banton's action came after he had read a speech delivered by Mr. Crowell before the convention of the American Bankers' association in Atlantic City. In his speech Mr. Crowell cited certain situations in which public officials had intervened in favor of bucketsters, and declared that henceforth full publicity would be given such acts.

TWENTY THOUSAND REPORTED KILLED IN BULGARIAN FIGHTING

All Day Battle Said to Have Taken Place Between
Revolutionary Forces and Regular Troops—
Location Near Sofia.

London, Sept. 25.—Twenty thousand men were killed on both sides during an all day battle between Bulgarian revolutionaries and regular troops on Sunday, said a Belgrade dispatch to the Daily News today quoting the newspaper Politika.

The dispatch did not give the location of the fight, but early dispatches indicated that it was near Sofia.

It is believed that the Belgrade report of 20,000 killed in battle is either an exaggeration or else an error in telegraphic transmission.

The highest estimate of casualties up to today was 700 killed and 2,000 wounded.

These figures covered all the fighting, not a single engagement. Censorship in Bulgaria is obscuring the situation and it would obviously be impossible for a correspondent in Sofia to send a dispatch containing such a casualty list.

Paris, Sept. 25.—The Bulgarian cabinet has resigned as a result of the Agrarian revolution, said a Sofia dispatch to the foreign office today.

The ministry was immediately reorganized, omitting the old minister of justice, A. national-liberal.

WHEELER WOULD FIX THE PRICE OF U. S. WHEAT

Program of "Liberal"
Group Placed Before
Coolidge

Washington, Sept. 25.—The "liberal" group, which will hold the balance of power in the next congress, took the initiative in the movement to force the administration into taking some action to relieve the distressful burdens of the American farmers.

The first step was the presentation of a formal demand to President Coolidge for the immediate summoning of congress in extra session to enact legislation for agricultural relief.

This demand was laid before the president by Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, who advised the president that congress should at once pass a measure fixing the price of wheat, and that immediate recognition should be extended to the existing government of Russia, thereby creating new markets for the farmers' products.

The second step taken by the group to bring about governmental intervention in the agricultural industry was the announcement by Senator Wheeler that a conference of all members of the group in both senate and house will be held here early in November to adopt a program for legislative action in the next congress. The call for the conference is being prepared. Of course, if an extra session of the congress is called the conference of the "liberals" will be called to meet at an earlier date.

Already three "planks" in the liberal program for legislation by congress have been agreed upon, Senator Wheeler said. They are: First, fixing the selling price of wheat; second, repeal of the Esch-Cummins transportation act; third, recognition of Russia.

Explaining these in order, Senator Wheeler pointed out that the government already has established precedents for the wheat price-fixing measure by the enactment of the Esch-Cummins law, which guaranteed a fixed return to the railroad companies upon their investments; also in the post-war adjustments with contractors, who were reimbursed for their outlay upon uncompleted projects.

"The government urged the farmers to plant all their acreage to wheat, just as it encouraged builders to devote their energies to putting up structures for housing various war activities," Senator Wheeler said. "The farmers never got anything for their trouble, but all the others did. Settlements were made by the government with contractors who found themselves with uncompleted jobs on their hands, while the farmers who had responded to the call for the planting of more wheat got nothing. All the government needs to do is to go out and buy one bushel of wheat. This will fix the price and the jobbers and middlemen will have to pay the same price for the wheat they get."

AWARDED FOURTH PLACE.

Columbus, Sept. 25.—Ohio's state champion live stock team, which won the title at the Ohio state fair, was awarded fourth place in national competition at the Sioux City food and clothing exposition, according to a report received by the Ohio Bankers' association. The state of Minnesota was granted the national championship title, winning over North Dakota, Nebraska, Ohio and seven other states, the report stated.

REUNION OPENS

Cincinnati, Sept. 25.—The Ohio legislative reunion was formally opened here last night when approximately 170 members of the Ohio general assembly and other state officials were the guests of the city. An official welcome was extended to the visitors by Mayor George Carrel, in behalf of a committee appointed to supervise the entertainment of the legislators. Governor Donahay and Lieut. Governor Bloom were unable to be present at the opening.

BOY IS KEPT IN IRONS BY FATHER

Harold Loomis

The Loomis family, of Chicago, considered that it was necessary to chain up little Harold, 13, to make him "be good." They shackled him, as shown, in a cellar coal pile. "Sometimes papa beat me with a strap," said Harold. Unrepentant, penitent, his spirit broken, he was rescued by the police. According to the Juvenile Court officials, Harold is not a bad boy.

CONTROVERSY OVER TAX MEASURE TO BE DECIDED SOON

Columbus, Sept. 25.—Ohio supreme court convened today for the fall term. All members of the court were present with the exception of Judge Thomas A. Jones of Jackson. Judge Jones has been in Europe and is expected to return late this week. The suits instituted by opposing interests in the controversy over the Taft and Albaugh taxation laws, which are under referendum attack, are among the cases to be argued before the court. A decision in these cases is necessary before Ohioans will know whether they are to vote on the laws on Nov. 6. Questions involved in the suit include the status of the two laws with reference to liability to referendum, as well as the validity of the referendum petitions brought against them by the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards.

GORED BY BULL.

Washington C. H., O., Sept. 25.—Virgil C. Duff, 25, residing on a farm near here, was seriously injured when he was gored by a bull which he was taking to pasture. Duff succeeded in knocking the bull by the horns until neighbors arrived and rescued him.

ECONOMIC CONSIDERATIONS SUCCEEDING IN RESTORING WORLD'S EQUILIBRIUM

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 25.—"Economic considerations are succeeding where politics have failed in restoring the world's equilibrium," John H. Puelicher, president of the American Bankers' Association, declared today in his address to the forty-ninth annual convention of the association.

The chief remaining obstacle to recovery, Puelicher said, is the lack

TEACHER RECEIVES THREATENING NOTE

Covington, Ky., Sept. 25.—A letter signed "K. K. K." and carrying the warning "You refuse to talk; beware," was received yesterday by Miss Rose Dobrowsky of Cincinnati, a teacher in the Covington public schools. The letter came as the aftermath of a mysterious telephone message last Saturday concerning the whipping of a girl pupil. The letter, which is in the hands of post office inspectors in Cincinnati, is printed on stationery that bears the words "Ku Klux Klan, Inc. The strongest organization on earth. We fear no man." This, according to Covington Klan officials, is not the official stationery of the organization.

Investigation of the use of rubber hose to punish Covington school children is expected to result from the supposed Klan letter.

Miss Dobrowsky is alleged in the Klan letter to have used a rubber hose in inflicting punishment upon the girl pupil.

Covington school officials were indignant over the phone call and letter to Miss Dobrowsky. They paid high tribute to her ability and character.

WALTON FACING CRISIS ORDERS PEOPLE TO ARM

Governor Says He Will Stop Legislators at Any Cost

"SHOOT TO KILL"

Executive Remains Firm—
Jewett to Bring Suit for Alleged Attack

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 25.—True to his promise, Governor J. C. (Iron Jack) Walton put his own newspaper on the streets of Oklahoma City today.

It was called "The Record" and made its appearance at a time when excitement was high and military officials were in conference with the governor, making plans to prevent "by use of arms if necessary," the assembly tomorrow which Gov. Walton terms the "Ku Klux Klan legislature."

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 25.—Governor Walton, facing the crisis of his career tomorrow, has ordered Adjutant General Baird H. Markham, commander of the Oklahoma national guard, to "use all the military forces of the state—all force of arms necessary"—to prevent the legislative quorum of the house of representatives meeting, in accordance with its avowed plan.

The governor commanded all citizens between the ages of 21 and 45 to hold themselves in readiness for service. His official order to the military left no further chance to doubt that he means to stop the "rebel legislators" at all costs, even that of statewide violence and bloodshed, if it should come to that extreme.

The governor reiterates that the Ku Klux Klan "was declared to be an enemy of the sovereign state of Oklahoma," and refers to evidence of its military court of inquiry as purporting to show that "it has taken over the political government in many cities and counties." Murders, floggings and other outrages are again charged to the Klan as an organization.

In a supplemental statement to newspaper correspondents, the governor added that the troops would be ordered to shoot to kill, if necessary, to halt the legislators in their determination to assemble against his edict.

The grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan N. C. Jewett, struck back and announced plans for a counter attack on the governor and his court of military inquiry.

Aroused by his arrest on a charge of rioting and flogging, Jewett, supreme klanman of the realm of Oklahoma, declared that he would use the same guns against his enemies as they have trained on him.

That he contemplates bringing both criminal and civil libel proceedings against the governor, Dr. A. A. Maupin, who testified against him at the court of military inquiry, "and others who have defamed my character," was his direct intimation. "I shall insist upon full vindication of my character," Jewett asserted.

There was some doubt in the minds of a number today as to whether the "lawless legislators"—as Walton calls them—will be able to muster a quorum in the capitol tomorrow. W. D. McBee, acknowledged leader of the impeachment movement, would not claim more than fifty members of the house were in the city. Fifty-four members are required for a majority, McBee did claim, however, that there would be eighty here when the time arrives for them to go over the hill to the capitol.

Military occupation of the city is to be increased and extended, Governor Walton announced. Mobilization of a considerable number of additional troops has already been ordered in the armories of other cities and the troops will entrain for the capital.

Republican members of the Oklahoma senate agreed that they "would keep hands off" the gubernatorial-legislative war here until assured of the legality of the called meeting of the house of representatives. The senate is composed of 12 Republicans and 33 Democrats.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS MEET.

Toledo, Sept. 25.—Delegates to the state convention of Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters have arrived in the city. All lodges of the state are represented, it being estimated that more than 1,000 delegates are in attendance. The Grand lodge is in session today.

SIXTY LIVES LOST

Falkirk, Scotland, Sept. 25.—It is feared that sixty lives were lost when a coal mine near this city was flooded today.

MRS. W. E. D. STOKES ACCUSES TWENTY

W. E. D. Stokes and Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes

The prolonged and bitter divorce litigation between W. E. D. Stokes, New York multi-millionaire hotel owner and sportsman, who a few years ago was the victim of the "shooting show girls," and his wife, a former Denver (Colo.) belle, reached a climax when Mrs. Stokes asked State's Attorney Crowe, of Chicago, for the indictment of a score of persons. She charges they have furnished her husband with false affidavits that she was the "Helen Norcross" who, twelve years ago, was an inmate of the notorious Everleigh Club, of Chicago. She asks prosecution for perjury and conspiracy. Minnie Everleigh, in Paris, has sworn that Mrs. Stokes was not "Helen Norcross." In his original divorce suit, Stokes named his own son as a co-respondent, but later withdrew the allegation. Mrs. Stokes is his second wife. She was completely exonerated in the original suit, but the trial judge died before the papers were signed, and the case must be tried again.

PENDING LIQUOR INDICTMENTS ARE HELD VALID BY U. S. COURT IN WEST VIRGINIA

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 25.—In an opinion rendered in federal court this morning, Judge W. E. Baker over ruled demurrers, interposed in behalf of the 87 individuals indicted here for conspiracy to violate the Volstead law.

The ruling holds as valid all pending indictments and rules out contention of defense counsel that the government had gone outside the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act to find the indictments that involve Sheriff Harry T. Clouse and his jailer, Joseph Bennett, and 84 individuals, who include not only prominent local business men and former officials, but persons in several counties of Ohio, in Pennsylvania and Tennessee.

MODERNISM CAUSES M. E. DISCUSSION

Columbus, Sept. 25.—The refusal of the annual Ohio M. E. Conference to take a definite stand on the issues between modernism and fundamentalism was the cause of considerable discussion in Methodist circles today following the closing session of the conference late Monday.

The conference rejected a memorial to expurge certain books in the conference course of study which were said to be "not in accord with the constitutional standards of the church." A proposed revision of the church hymnal was also rejected.

Memorials adopted provide that church officials absent from official meetings for six months lose their positions; the title "local preacher" be changed to "lay preacher"; that the words "general superintendent" be substituted for "bishops" in the ritual and that annuities and other regulations concerning supply preachers be changed.

VERDICT MAY BE READY IN A DAY

Cleveland, Sept. 25.—With only the closing arguments for government and defense and the charge of Judge D. C. Westenhaver still to be made, it was predicted today that the jury trying the conspiracy charges against Joseph Shearer, former federal prohibition director of Ohio; Fred Counts, former federal prohibition agent; and Samuel A. Hoskins and A. Frank Counts, lawyers, would have begun deliberations late today and might return their verdict before tonight.

STORAGE OF COAL IS BEING URGED

Washington, Sept. 25.—Systematic storage of bituminous coal on a large scale by consumers during seasons of low consumption is the public's largest opportunity and responsibility in solving the coal problem, the United States Coal Commission today informed President Coolidge in a supplementary report.

"Storage of coal by consumers is the all important balance wheel between fluctuating consumption and variable production," the commission said. "It is the consumers' insurance against temporary failures of transportation and it is the only protection yet devised for the consumer against protracted general stoppage of coal mining or of railroad deliveries."

The report also pointed out that the coal problem is a national one, and that the government's views on matters where a communiqué is inadvisable.

"Germany's proclamation of passive resistance is similar to admission of defeat in 1918," the report said. "They have surrendered before force just as did before."

L'Oeuvre praised Chan Stresemann's courage but said could not hold out against French troops.

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Chan Stresemann today warned the nation against an uprising, retaliation for the surrender France.

"We will proceed ruthlessly against any attempt to revolt," the chancellor said. "The existence, unity of the German state must be safeguarded at all costs. I, the ministers and myself, have hoarded a boat which is threatened with being engulfed by the war but so long as the boat remains afloat the cabinet will do all in its power to steer a calm, orderly course."

"Any one trying to rock it will be treated as a mutineer."

New York, Sept. 25.—With men, both young and prominent, under arrest today detectives continued their investigation of $100,000 Cincinnati bond theft which has been a mystery for weeks.

The bonds were stolen last week. Detectives asserted that both men were involved in the disposition and that Merwin had $41,000 of them. Merwin gave long statement to the district attorney's office, which was withheld.

At least one more arrest is expected, police said.

Washington, Sept. 25.—The material loss to Japan from the recent earthquake and fire, officially estimated at $1,000,000,000 means a loss of only $12 per capita, if distributed over the whole population of the empire, the far eastern division of the Department of Commerce pointed out in a statement today.

PERSONNEL OF CENTRAL HIGH ELEVEN IS STILL CASTING DEEP SHADOW OF MYSTERY

A worried bunch of youngsters, wearing the conventional blue and white of Central High School athletic teams, will march on Cox Memorial Athletic Field Friday afternoon for the first game of the 1923 gridiron campaign with Wilmington High School. Forty or more pastimers who have been roll-blocking, tackling and passing their way to a position on the squad, will wear these treifful expressions when they take the oblong in the curtain raiser. The firstfulness will arise from the fact that there isn't a player on the huge squad that can lay claim to the belief that he has earned himself a berth in the eleven.

Coach "Puss" Burgner is talking about as much as the Sphinx regarding who will face Coach Black's pastimers in the Friday afternoon embroglio. Candidates have absorbed the hint that on their showing in this first week of practice will depend whether they start against the Quakers or not. The fact that three or more recruits will be available for every position on the team is strengthening Coach Burgner's system of keeping the bad news to himself.

With no player considering his position cinched all are working up a temperature trying to further their qualities in the eyes of the mentor. The result is that all of the pastimers are striving equally and the opening game will probably see all of these lads getting a crack at the opening day honors.

Art Currie three year quarterback, reported to the squad Monday night.

Styles BY LENORE

For the season's most recent originalities, Dame Fashion has robbed the poor ostrich. We have in the sketch a charming fan decorated with an ostrich rose and curled "drips"—a distinctive vocarde and newest conceit of all, an ostrich trimmed bag.

PARIS NOTES

One of the notable silhouettes has the skirt crushed about the hips and completed with gathered fullness or circular effect.

The low waistline is retained in many models, frequently emphasized with embroidered bands or metal galon.

In three-piece costumes coats of three-quarter length are being introduced.

Velvet is prominent in fall fashions, especially in black, relieved by white fur.

Fur is given a great deal of importance as a trimming, for cloth dresses as well as suits. Here, astrakham and Hudson seal are prominent. Moleskin is made into a three-piece suit by Barnard.

DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE

By Those Who Know

"Is this the time to build?"

It's one of the most frequently asked questions. And in all sincerity can we now answer—

"Yes—it is."

The present offers no indication of reduction in prices. The demand for building materials is general. Added to this is the recent increase in freight rates. All tending to increase, rather than decrease the cost of materials.

One condition we must never lose sight of. While there may still be years of cutting in some of our timbered sections, that same timber is becoming more difficult to reach each year, and is being brought into the markets at an ever increasing cost.

These sections are, in most cases, remote from the better transportation facilities, which again tends to increase the cost. Labor, generally, has not reverted to the prices of pre-war days—nor can we expect it to.

The present offers the greatest opportunity for economical building. If you're planning to build or repair—do it

CONFISCATE TRUNK CONTAINING LIQUOR IN LOCAL HOTEL

While T. E. Saunders, Columbus, alias Frank Leonard, of Austin, Texas, languished in the County Jail serving out a fine of $500 and costs for possessing liquor, a trunk, said to be his and containing a quantity of Gordon dry gin, lay in the trunk room of the Regil Hotel.

On a tip that the man's trunk was at the hotel filled with liquor, Sheriff Morris Sharp investigated Monday and found the receptacle, containing 20 quarts of liquor and eight others that had been broken or their stoppers had worked loose, and the contents had been spilled. Hotel officials were unaware of the presence of the liquor.

Saunders or Leonard, was arrested here a month ago and a quart and one-half of Gordon dry gin confiscated in his traveling case. Authorities allege he is a high-grade liquor salesman. His card bore the name of Saunders, and the Columbus address, and gave his profession as "imported goods." Later the man said his name was Leonard and his home Austin, Texas. Authorities do not believe either is his correct name.

The man has not had correspondence with anyone since being locked up in the County Jail. He declared the small amount of liquor confiscated originally was all he had. The trunk full of gin confiscated Monday will be made the basis of a second charge of possession that will be filed against him at once, authorities say.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Legg of Columbus, spent Sunday with Mr. and J. G. Mitchell, of North Collier Street.

Mr. C. S. McDaniel of Union St. spent Tuesday in Cincinnati on business.

Miss Helen Smith of Union Street, spent the week end in Richmond Ind. with her cousin Miss Ruth Painter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Conklin and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Conklin of Dayton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Steele of near Xenia Sunday.

Miss Edna Fravell of Los Angeles, California, visited friends in this city, Monday. Miss Fravell was called to Dayton recently by the death of her father, Major Fravell.

Miss Eleanor Collins will leave Wednesday for Philadelphia, to spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Collins.

Miss Agnes Ballantyne of North Detroit Street will leave Wednesday for New York City to enter the W. W. White Biblical Seminary. She will be gone for about three months. She will stop in Philadelphia over Sunday to visit friends before going on to New York.

Mr. M. F. Jacoby who was severely injured when he fell down an elevator shaft at the Greene County Auto Sales Company Saturday spent an uncomfortable night Monday but was slightly improved Tuesday.

Mrs. Otis Brown of west of Spring Valley underwent an operation at the McClellan Hospital, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Brown was taken ill Saturday night, thought to be suffering from appendicitis and was taken to the hospital Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond O. Copey of the Springfield pike, are the parents of a daughter born Sunday morning.

KIWANIANS STAGE TOURNEY.

Officials of the Kiwanis Club, Tuesday, announced that members of the club, who do not belong to the County Club are expected to attend the golf tournament at the links Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. The tournament will be followed by a supper to be prepared and served by the losing team.

ONE PAPER SERVES SEVERAL MILLION READERS IN N. Y.

A total of nearly three and one half million readers in New York have seen without their daily newspapers during the last week when an outland strike of pressmen in that city forced publishers to issue a combined eight page paper representing ten morning newspapers and a similar edition representing five afternoon journals.

The combined circulation of the morning newspapers is 2,073,392 while that of the evening papers is 1,401,312 these readers being served with only two editions daily in place of the many editions normally published by each paper.

The combined morning newspaper a copy of which has been received at the offices of The Gazette and The Republican, contains but eight pages with less than a page of advertising. The only advertisements appearing in the paper are theatrical and steamship and a few lost and found ads. There are sixty-eight small theater advertisements and announcements of forty one steamship companies.

According to word from New York Publishers' Association officials Tuesday increased the size of the morning edition to sixteen pages. Although striking pressmen are reported as remaining adamant union pressmen from other cities are arriving in the metropolis in response to an appeal of George L. Berry, president of the International union, to fill vacancies.

It was expected that Tuesday night's combined edition would be the largest since the strike was begun a week ago. The appearance of editorials and department store advertising was looked for.

POLICE COURT

MAN RE-ARRESTED

Fred Porter, colored, released from the County Jail some time ago on promise to pay his fine and costs on a liquor charge, was re-arrested by Patrolmen Simms and Thompson Monday night for failure to meet his fine.

Porter was fined $500 and costs by Police Judge E. D. Smith and the fine was later commuted to $100 and costs on his agreement to pay. He will probably be remanded to the County Jail.

FINED ON TUESDAY

Walter Scott, colored, was fined $25 and costs by Judge E. D. Smith in Police Court Tuesday morning on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was arrested by Patrolman Simms on an affidavit filed by his wife, who alleged the offense. The fine was dismissed on agreement of Scott to leave his wife alone.

SCHOOL BOYS MAY GET TIME TO WORK

Because of the great difficulty that Greene County farmers are experiencing in securing help to take care of corn and other crops at this busy season, and also because of the exceedingly high cost of labor with which they must compete, the Greene County Board of Education is arranging with as many high schools as possible to have the boys excused from school for a short period, according to County superintendent of School H. C. Aultmon. The work which the pupils miss will be made up upon their return to school.

"This is done only in justice to the farmer," said County Superintendent Aultmon, Tuesday, "and his present economic condition and if the opportunity is conscientiously used by both the parents and the teachers it seems that little or no harm will come to the schools by doing so."

INJURED BOY RECOVERING.

WORKING HOURS SEEM SHORTER WHEN YOU FEEL FULL OF "S"

In the middle of the afternoon lots of people feel tired, "headachy" and can't work. Yet, it isn't the work they do so much as the run-down condition of their nerves, stomach and blood.

Build yourself up, and you'll do twice the work in half the time. Win back your strength, energy and "pep." Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup has proved to countless numbers of people in this state that it increases the stimulates digestion, blood pumping through the system. Take a delicious after meals and see what a difference it makes in the way you sleep and work. It is a real understanding that your body is not completely satisfied. Xenia at Sayre & Herd, Sohn's Drug Store and at G. O. Carpenter's.

EAST HIGH PLANS TO PLACE GRID TEAM ON FIELD THIS SEASON

East High School expects to put the first football team in its history on the field this year.

Under the direction of Coach Lewis, a squad of more than 17 players is working out to make the gridiron sport a feature of the annual athletic program at the colored prep school.

Many performers showed up well under fire when the mentor sent them through their first scrimmage a few days ago. With a squad composed of entirely green material, the task of the mentor is far from an easy one, but the athletes are practicing faithfully with the determination of giving East High a team that will stack up with the best.

Smith, Raymond, D. Ward and H. Taylor are showing considerable skill and speed in the backfield of the new team. Other candidates who answered the call for the first team are C. Taylor, Dickerson, Gaines, Perry, Lyon, Barr, Douglas, Buford, Corbet, Jones, Williams, J. Anderson and others.

In spite of the fact that Coach Lewis is well satisfied with the slightly showing they are making in workouts. He will continue drilling them on fundamentals in the hope that by the end of the season, a well balanced team will have resulted and the gridiron sport placed on a firm foundation at the east end school.

FOOTBALL MEETING ON TAP WEDNESDAY

All football players in the city wishing to try out with a 100 percent football squad are requested to attend a meeting to be held at Glen "Mickey" McFadden's home, 234 North King street, Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

MIAMISBURG WILL OPPOSE BAYLIFFS ON DIAMOND HERE

By Wones

The Xenia Bayliffs will play Miami at Washington Park Sunday afternoon. Manager Bayliff had little difficulty in booking the Miami bunch as earlier in the season they challenged the local nine.

All players who took part in the Red Sox contest had a good batting practice at the expense of Davis and Jones the twirlers for the east end gang.

The coming game is certain to arouse the fans as the average baseball fan knows just what kind of a nine Miami has. They lost to the North Dayton Merchants Sunday afternoon by an 8 to 2 score but the Miami outfit was off form. This was the rub game. In the first conflict between these clubs the Miami nine downed the Merchants by a 9 to 6 score while the next game was a bit closer and the Dayton outfit won.

The Bayliffs, after winning the city and county championship, are confident that they can turn back the sturdy Miami gang. Anyway, with the kind of material they possess, the locals will make the going a bit rough for their rivals. Just who will start the game for the Bayliffs is a puzzle at present. Herman or Free will be available. Both of these lads have been enjoying success on the diamond but whether they can stop the hard hitting Miami bunch is a question. Each side wants to grab this contest. The Burgers are withholding their pitching choice but have let it be known that a high-class twirler is to take the mound against the Bayliffs in Sunday's battle. The Burgers have beaten some mighty good nines around Dayton and Cincinnati and they are bound to make plenty of trouble for the Washington street bunch this week end. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock with Norris in charge.

BOATS TO CARRY OIL.

Zanesville, O., Sept. 25.—A large oil and gasoline storage house is to be erected by the Pomeroy Oil company, on the Muskingum river here, with a pier extending into the river. A fleet of river barges will be used to transport oil and gasoline here from Pittsburgh and other eastern points. This will be the first attempt ever made to transport oil and gasoline on the Muskingum river.

AIR BOMBERS SINK BATTLESHIPS

The effectiveness of bombing battleships from the air from a high altitude was shown off the Virginia capes when Martin bombing planes of the United States Army sunk the obsolete battleships New Jersey and Virginia. Planes effectively dropped 1,100-pound bombs from a height of 10,000 feet. This excellent photograph shows one of the bombs hitting the Virginia, sending her to the bottom.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS ARE ASKED TO MEET

Organization of an independent football team here that will rank with the best gridiron products of nearby cities, is scheduled as the point of interest attached to a meeting of football men at the Central High School gym Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Coach Earl Burnger of the Central High eleven is calling for football candidates and all who are interested in the promotion of the independent grid sport to attend the gathering Tuesday. Coach Burnger, a former Wittenberg star and all-Ohio man, is planning to give considerable of his extra time to the venture.

NORMAL SCHOOL APPLICATIONS.

Columbus, Sept. 25.—Entrance examinations for enrollment in all teachers' training institutions in the state, with the exception of the county normal schools, have been scheduled for Oct. 4 and 5, according to State Educational Director Riegel. Students are now enrolled provisionally, pending the outcome of these tests. Over one thousand prospective students took the examination for entrance to county normal schools, which was held Sept. 5.

EXPLAINS WORK OF VETERANS' BUREAU TO LOCAL CLUB

A Mr. Kelly, from the XDayton office of the United States Veterans' Bureau, was the principal speaker at the Xenia Rotary Club meeting, at the Elks' Lodge, Tuesday noon. Mr. Kelly explained the functions of the Bureau with the ex-service men. The Bureau spends one-fourth of a million dollars a day, for the benefit of ex-soldiers, for treatment and compensation. He explained the forms of applications made by the men, and the examinations they undergo to receive the benefits of the Bureau.

A number of ex-soldiers who have been disabled from the war, are now taking vocational training at Harvard and Yale Universities. Tubercular patients are treated in the outdoors he explained. During the war, four million soldiers carried insurance. Mr. Kelly, said, while, now only a million have kept the insurance up. From eight to ten tubercular patients apply at the Dayton State Hospital, every day, according to the speaker.

Mr. Kelly declared that there was no reason for ex-service men to ask charity of any kind, or to be seen on the street in need or want. Before the Rotary club meeting, Mr. Kelly was taken to the O. S. and S. O. Home, and made a tour of the grounds and institutional buildings, which he highly praised.

Rotarians endorsed the movement backed by Colonel Gooddeck, a retired army officer, in connection with the organization of a rifle club or National Guard organization, in Xenia. The state pays the expenses of the organizations formed in the various cities, and furnishes all equipment.

WEEKS STIRS ROW IN U. S. CONGRESS

Washington, Sept. 25.—Secretary of War Weeks found out this afternoon that he stirred up a bitter row both in and out of Congress by approving the dissolution of the great Muscle Shoals power and nitrate project by selling the Gorgas Steam plant to the Alabama Power company instead of to Henry Ford.

Rep. W. B. Oliver, Democrat of Alabama made a special trip to the war department to tell Weeks that there was no reason why the government should have disposed of the Gorgas plant at this time, while the American Farm Bureau federation declared in a formal statement that the sale of

CROSS BURNED AT PRIEST'S RESIDENCE

A "fiery cross" was set up and burned on the lawn of the residence of the Rev. A. A. Burke, pastor of St. Brigid's Catholic Church, about 8:15 o'clock Monday night.

Neighbors saw a man leave the yard after setting fire to the gasoline soaked emblem, and run. The man disappeared before watchers comprehended that a cross had been lighted, the flames blazing so high at first, that the emblem did not take shape. Neighbors notified the Rev. Father Burke, who extinguished the blaze with a bucket of water.

"The Klan is absolutely not responsible for any such act and does not believe in that sort of thing," Dr. R. L. Haines, when asked Tuesday if the Ku Klux Klan had anything to do with the burning of the cross, said "It is evidently the work of enemies of the Klan to try to discredit the organization."

Dr. Haines said the cross might have been burned by boys, but said

ATTEMPT TO WRECK CAR NEAR TOLEDO IS FAILED

Toledo, Sept. 25.—An unsuccessful attempt was made to wreck a car and Indiana Interurban car on a side of Toledo today.

Dense fog prevented the men from seeing three piles of ties being placed across the track feet apart. The car slowed down, crossed and because of the fog, remained on the track, striking the first pile of ties. After moving the ties, the car proceeded.

MRS. ELLA BUTLER.

That Ka-di-ik is helpful to the large majority of those who use it is evidenced by the fact that testimonials continue to come in every day and are constantly increasing in number. The manufacturers of this popular remedy have published hundreds of these statements received from grateful users, and the names and addresses have always been given so that their accuracy and truthfulness can easily be verified.

Mrs. Ella Butler, of 204 1/2 East Main street, Columbus, in relating her experience with Ka-di-ik, says: "When I first took Ka-di-ik a short time ago I weighed only 119 pounds and was so weak and ill that I could hardly drag myself around the doctors told me that I was disposed to have tubercular trouble and I was also advised that I had gall stones. I felt utterly depressed, in spirits and was nervous and worn-out. I do not care now what the trouble was so long as I feel as well as I do today. In the few short weeks that I have taken Ka-di-ik I have a hearty appetite, have got over my nervous trouble and am feeling well, and strong. My present weight is 142 pounds. I can truly say that Ka-di-ik has been a blessing to me, and I gratefully recommend it to any one who may be suffering as I did."

Ka-di-ik can be had in Xenia at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store, adv.

BRINGING UP FATHER

TO ADDRESS LOCAL AERIE OF EAGLES ON NEXT SUNDAY

Judge Thomas O'Donnell, of Kansas City, past national officer of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will address members of Xenia Aerie at the lodge rooms here next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The address will be open to the public and everybody is invited to attend the meeting. The speaker is expected to launch the campaign to be carried on here this fall with the purpose of greatly increasing the members of Xenia Aerie.

Judge O'Donnell is expected to deal particularly with field work being conducted by the national organization and is also expected to warmly support the Old Age Pension law which will be voted on at the coming election. Legislation in favor of the pension was started by the Eagles, and is supported by the American Federation of Labor and other welfare groups.

The speaker is also expected to emphasize the "beneficial" and "recreation" features of the fraternity including the services of a physician, sick benefit and funeral benefit. He will refer to the beneficial legislation backed by the order, the patriotic fund which paid $1000 to families of members who lost their life in the service and the new rituals established in observance of patriotic days.

During the last fiscal year more than 97,000 new members were enrolled in the order, it is said.

A WIFE'S STORY

LOGAN INSPIRES DISTRUST OF PAUL

Chapter XXXVI

I tore open a paper that came to me in the morning mail, a society sheet I seldom saw. Wondering who had sent it I scanned its pages. I was horrified to come upon a marked paragraph containing Paul's name. I read it slowly. Someone had written:

"At a certain Cafe, frequented by an ultra-fast set, the hilarity was brought to a sudden stop by the appearance of the husband of a young and beautiful woman, one of a large party. He started a scene and had it not been for the calmness and tactfulness of Mr. Paul Norwood, one of the party, things would have been far more exciting. The party evidently was well 'hipped' as was the disturber of their revels."

Then came a list of the male members of the party, but only hints as to those of the other sex—hints lost upon me because I knew nothing of women who attended such parties—an actress or two, a woman described as "that beautiful blonde," etc.

Even now I felt no jealousy. It was more a feeling of shame that came over me—that Paul should be mixed up in such a disgraceful scene. I had noted Dave Logan's name was not mentioned; he had not been of the party. I put the paper where the girls would not see it, but determined to ask Paul for an explanation.

I waited up for him that night until nearly one o'clock. I showed him the paper, asked what it meant.

"Where did you get that sheet?" he asked.

"It was mailed to me, marked."

"Something like an anonymous letter," he sneered.

"No, for no editor would print names unless he knew he could prove what he said. He would lay himself open to a libel suit," I replied.

"Well?" Paul said.

"Why were you there, Paul? Do you go to such places often?" I questioned. Then as he did not answer I went on: "It makes me so ashamed to have you mentioned in such a way. I have always felt you were above doing things of that sort—drinking parties, other men's wives. It is horribly degrading."

"Don't make a mountain out of a mole-hill. No one pays any attention to that scurrilous sheet. Tear it up and go to bed. I'll go where I please and with whom I please. It is time you understood that, and I'll not be questioned now any more than I have been before."

He went to his room. He had not appeared angry simply impatient.

"He feels it more than he will acknowledge," I said to myself, as I followed his example and retired. But I could not sleep. I had the feeling of ineffectiveness, of failure, I so often had after talking with Paul.

The next afternoon at tea time Dave Logan called. To my surprise he spoke of the article said he regretted it for my sake. Had I not known he was Paul's best friend I should have felt he was purposely exaggerating its importance in its effect upon me.

"A man that has what he has is a fool to make a public show of himself," he said indignantly. A thought of what Evelyn Markham told me of him came to me, as he went on saying things that I knew Paul was a regular patron of the place that the woman whose husband broke up the party had long been jealous of Paul. When he left I was a thoroughly unhappy woman.

Paul was deliberately deceiving me. He was not required to remain out evenings, did so for his own pleasure. This was what hurt me. That after the years spent away from us after all my hard work, my suffering, he should deliberately neglect us for his own selfish pleasure. Even now I was not jealous. Paul admired beauty, was easily flattered. With these gay people both these appetites were fed. As always I made excuses for him in my heart. He was still handsome and I loved him.

But as I sat alone after the girls had gone to bed, or waiting for Joan to come in, the things Dave Logan had said to me often recurred, and a sort of distrust of Paul never felt before possessed me.
